

Vancouver's Matak Investigates Leads as Professional Detective

VANCOUVER, BC - Kathy Matak is the president of Baker Street Agency, a division of Katien Resources Inc. Matak a Simon Fraser University criminology graduate brings to the world an extensive background in law enforcement, security consulting, and training, as well as years of experience in surveillance and criminal investigations. She is a member of CFU Lodge 787 of Vancouver.

Her investigative business has operated for the past 15 years with specialties in missing persons, audits, forensic accounting, and undercover operations. A key part of her career was developing the private policing program at the Justice Institute of British Columbia. This was a major innovation in the security industry encompassing security guards, investigators and specialized categories such as hotel and airport security. Today security training is mandatory for all investigations and consumer advocacy.

Her staff is experienced in detailed investigations with each member contributing his or her own speciality to the organization. The role of an investigator is changing. We are professionals in the industry and our staff exhibits this not just through its experience and knowledge, but through education.

The services our firm can offer you are estate searches, credit inquiries, help in landlord tenant disputes, mediations, surveillance, undercover operations, title searches, property searches.

Kathy can be reached at (604)294-6574 or through her website at www.bakerstreetagency.com. All Croatian clients are considered "preferred customers" and are offered discounts based on the type of investigation they require.
